Welcome to Buenos Aires!

Elegant, old-worldly, with a touch of Paris here and of London there, a dash of New York cosmopolitanism and Italian exuberance here, the city nevertheless has a lot of Latin America in it as well and some things that are uniquely Argentine, such as its tango bars and overflowing kiosks. Here, everything is grand, on a scale fit for kings: tourists photograph their steaks at the restaurants, Av. 9 de Julio ranks as the world's widest avenue, a cemetery so fancy that it occupies one of the poshest bits of downtown, the entire city fronts on the world's widest river. Buenos Aires never fails to impress.
Rest of the day at leisure.

Sofitel Buenos Aires

The Sofitel Buenos Aires dates back to the golden age of Argentinean style; this authentic Art Deco monument, the city's first skyscraper, has towered over the historic heart of Buenos Aires since 1929. From the first look inside, though, you'll be convinced it's a modern reproduction, so impeccably has it been maintained - there's not a droplet out of place on the immense chandelier that hangs above the reception, not a chip in the black-and-white marble floor.

The guest rooms are immaculate as well, handsome and traditional in soft yellow and black and, even the meeting rooms and the little-seen back corridors of the place sparkle. Rooms take in commanding views of the city and the Río de la Plata, and the amenities, naturally, are comprehensive, from satellite TV and high-speed internet to smart and elegant bathrooms complete with a phone extension by the tub.

As for the restaurant, another surprise: not an Argentinean steakhouse but rather the finest Provençal venue in town, and a traditional cafe within a functioning library, shelves stocked with literature in Spanish and French - perfect for exercising the mind, while a fitness center, indoor pool and massage service cater to the body.

FEBRUARY 20TH, 2010

BUENOS AIRES

Meet your guide and begin a full day sightseeing tour of Buenos Aires. Start at the most important square of the country, the Plaza de Mayo (May Square). Here, where the country was founded in 1580, the most important governmental buildings are located, including the Casa Rosada (Pink House), the Cabildo (City Hall) and the Catedral Metropolitana (Metropolitan Cathedral). Here, a short ride in Latin America's oldest subway system will take you through a journey in time towards Buenos Aires most traditional café: Café Tortoni where you will be treated with a coffee before continuing with your visit to the city.

The visit continues to San Telmo neighborhood, one of the oldest of the city. This neighborhood maintains a great part of its architectonic patrimony intact: its colonial style houses, its cobbled streets. Continue towards the picturesque district of La Boca, with its famous Caminito Street, one of the few outdoor museums in the world. There, numerous artists exhibit their works whose theme has to do with the influence of the European citizens (mainly Italians), that arrived at their port at the end of the XIX century.

Lunch will be included at Cabaña las Lilas restaurant, located in Puerto Madero area, this restaurant is one of Argentina's most renowned steak houses.

After lunch, the tour continues to the northern area of the city to visit the Palermo Parks and Recoleta, the most elegant neighborhood of the city.

Drive towards Palermo, a district with different faces: a classic one in Palermo Chico and a modern one in Palermo Hollywood and Soho. See its beautiful parks and gardens. Elegant mansions surrounded by green areas. We will pass by the Parque 3 de febrero (February the 3rd Park), the Biblioteca Nacional (National Library) and the Facultad de Derecho (Law School).

Continue to La Recoleta, one of the most elegant and sophisticated districts. Here you will visit 'Nuestra Señora del Pilar' Church and the Recoleta Cemetery, known worldwide due to its rich architecture and the famous personalities of the Argentine history and society that are buried there.

** Evening Event ****

This evening, enjoy a special dinner at Esquina Carlos Gardel, where VIP seats will be arranged for you.

Elegance and splendor share every corner of this dazzling place. This three level building, the upper two forming the VIP sector, will seduce you with refined details and furniture. Esquina Carlos Gardel has a capacity for up to 500 people who, as tango itself, will be reluctant to leave.

"The lights will dim and the orchestra will tune up as elusive legs will begin their dance" Esquina Carlos Gardel is a revival of the tango sophistication, luxury, and style of the Golden Decade of Buenos Aires. The show, with its incomparable technical display and an artistic proposal international level, weaves the audience into a mystic tango atmosphere. The sensuality underlying all choreographic patterns combines in a vivid tribute to tango. The Orchestra mingles both dancers and voices, thus reaffirming unparalleled interpretative standards well worth of clap standing ovation.

Welcome to Mendoza!

Mendoza, located in the mid-west of Argentina and at the feet of the Andes, is the country's 4th largest city with over 1,6 million inhabitants. Widely known for its beautiful landscapes, it enjoys a strategic geographical location and becomes a real link by connecting Chile with the Mercosur countries - Brazil, Argentina, Uruguay and Paraguay. Moreover, it is a perfect example of a successful combination of Spanish, Italian and indigenous cultures: The outdoor cafés and treelined avenues of its capital city attest to the province's European heritage while the legacy from the Incas is Mendoza's intricate irrigation system used for agriculture. Its particular way of cultivating the land has given birth to a culture of hard work supported by a careful and intelligent use of natural resources.

Events related with the Viticulture's world and Aconcagua, highest peak of America (22,841ft), are interests that turn Mendoza into one of the favorite international tourist destinations: Trekking, rafting, skiing, mountaineering and astounding landscapes where to carry out photographic safaris, among other activities.

Mendoza is the center of Argentina's wine industry and accounts for approximately 70% of the country's total output. Nearly all the major wineries are concentrated in this province. A combination of right temperatures, long sun hours, scarce rainfall, low humidity, and the absence of strong winds, coupled with exceptional soil conditions have given rise to an excellent ecological environment that is ideal for the production of top quality grapes.

Its signature grape is the Malbec. The climate and terroir in Mendoza are the ideal setting for the full expression of this grape variety. Harvest normally happens between February and early April turning the whole city into its atmosphere: numerous cultural events, celebrations and parades crowned by the Vendimia Festival take place then.

Rest of the day at leisure. Dinner tonight will be served at the hotels main restaurant.

Bistro 'M'

Located in the hotel Lobby, Bistro 'M' offers traditional Mendocinean food with a French accent. An airy and spacious restaurant, Bistro 'M' benefits from a terrace near the hotel entrance with fine views of the Plaza Independencia, creating the perfect atmosphere to accompany fine cuisine.

Park Hyatt Mendoza

The hotel Park Hyatt Mendoza, in Argentina, with its beautifully restored 19th-century Spanish colonial façade, is conveniently situated in the main business and banking district in the centre of Mendoza. With a prominent position on the Plaza de la Independencia, the hotel is only 15 minutes from Mendoza international airport, 15 minutes from the main Mendoza vineyards and 90 minutes from major ski resorts in Argentina.
